DEDICATION

To Commander Anton Hopen, whose wise and experienced leadership in the early days of the battalion was an inspiration to officers and men alike, this book is respectfully dedicated.

To the story told on these pages, I wish only to add my deep gratitude and profound thanks to the splendid officers and men who, by their loyalty and unselfish cooperation have done the magnificent job for which our battalion has received credit.

As our job is yet unfinished, we shall carry on with the determination and confidence traditional to the Seabees. Only by a successful and victorious conclusion of our assignment can we justify the faith, trust and hope of our loved ones who so proudly sent us to the service and who now so patiently await our return.

It is truly an honor and a privilege to serve as your commanding officer.

He assumed command of the battalion on 1 November 1944, upon detachment of Commander Charles E. Nash, who succeeded Commander Anton Hopen as commanding officer. Commander Gardner has had many years experience in the construction field, and calls Seattle, Wash., "Home."

CHIEF PETTY OFFICERS' MESS

CPO's take time out to enjoy another of those delicious meals. What? Could that be hamburger there on the table?

In Camp Peary there were three things that made the life of the poor "boot" miserable: The weather, General Orders, and—Chief Petty Officers. Just so you won't forget, here is a sample of each. . . .

THE 26TH PSALM

The Chief is my Shepherd, I shall not want,
 He maketh me take hikes in rough pastures.
 He leadeth me beside the OOD offices;
 He disturbeth my sleep.
 He leadeth me over plenty roughness;
 For my country's sake.
 Yeah, though I walk down the street past
 zoot-suiters,
 I shall fear no evil;
 For the Seabees are always with me.
 Their '03's, and packs, they discomfort me,
 He prepareth a pup-tent for me in the presence of my mates,
 He adorneth my head with a helmet,
 My temper runneth over.
 Surely the JG's and Ensigns shall follow me;
 The rest of my days;
 And I shall dwell in a Quonset hut forever.

Amen

By: Raymond Arnold, S2c; Co. A, Plat. 2.

After this toughening up process, the boys were ready for anything. One day in March, 1944, the battalion shook the mud of Camp Peary from its GI's, and bid a tearful farewell to Virginia.

GENERAL ORDER JIVE

Do you dig us?

1. To take charge of this mellow post and all government stach in view?
2. To lay down the hard shoe leather in a military manner, keeping always in the groove and digging everything that don't grow.
3. To rat on rats that ain't living by the Good Book.
4. To repeat all short orders from posts more distant from the Big House than the rut I'm in.
6. To dig, obey and lay onto the cat what cuts in all fine talk from the Big Boy of the Day, and all Big Boys and Little Boys of the congregation only.
7. To jive with no 'gator what ain't cookin' with coke.
8. To blow my top when the heat's on or in ease the joint falls in.
9. To stem my pipes from the corporal of the guard to square any beef I'm not hep to.
10. To bend the elbow when I dig all brass hats and all Betsy Rosses without a zoot suit.
11. To be especially on the beam during the early black, and, during the time for challenging, to challenge all persons on or near my post, and to let no cat by without a proper ticket.

CAMP ROUSSEAU, ALTHOUGH THE BOYS DID NOT REALIZE IT WHEN THEY ARRIVED ON 24 MARCH 1944, WAS TO BE THEIR HOME FOR FOUR MONTHS. HERE, THEY LEARNED VALUABLE LESSONS IN STEVEDORING, AND IN NEARBY HOLLYWOOD, LEARNED OTHER KINDS OF LESSONS. . . .

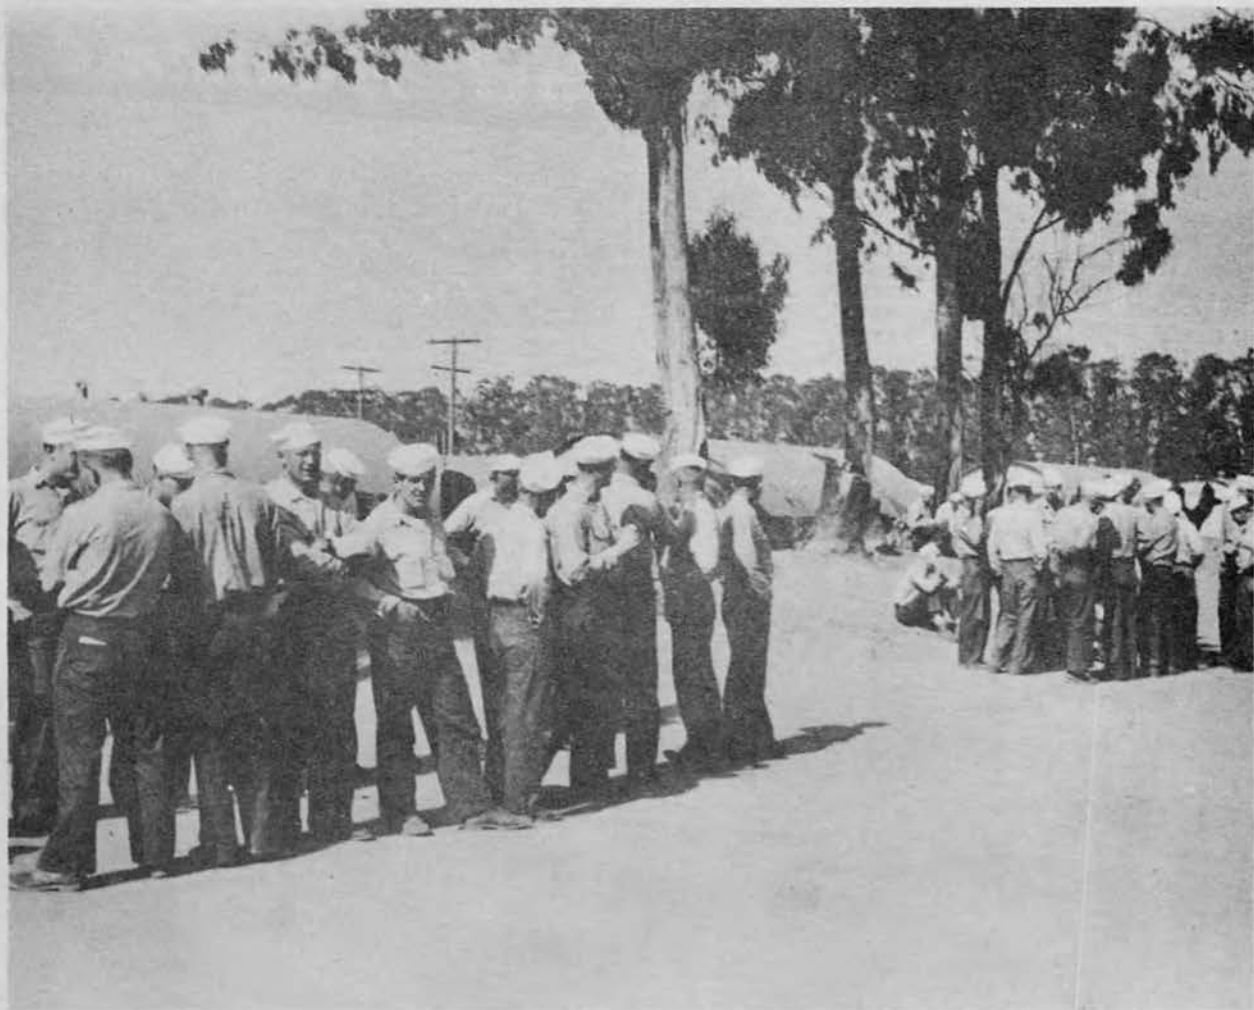

Here's a place you ought to recognize—or didn't you go on liberty while in Hueneme? The chief, there, looks hopeful—but most of the cars were full when they hit that point.

If you were lucky enough to get a bus, you got to Oxnard all right—but your troubles were just beginning. From there on, the thumb and...

Here's a spot that ought to be familiar to you if you ever had your wife or sweetheart visit you at Hueneme. It was known to the regular customers as the "dry-firing" range.

"YOU'LL BE SORRY!"

Of course you'll remember this—or were you unconscious when you went aboard? Goodbye to U.S.A.—hello Island X!

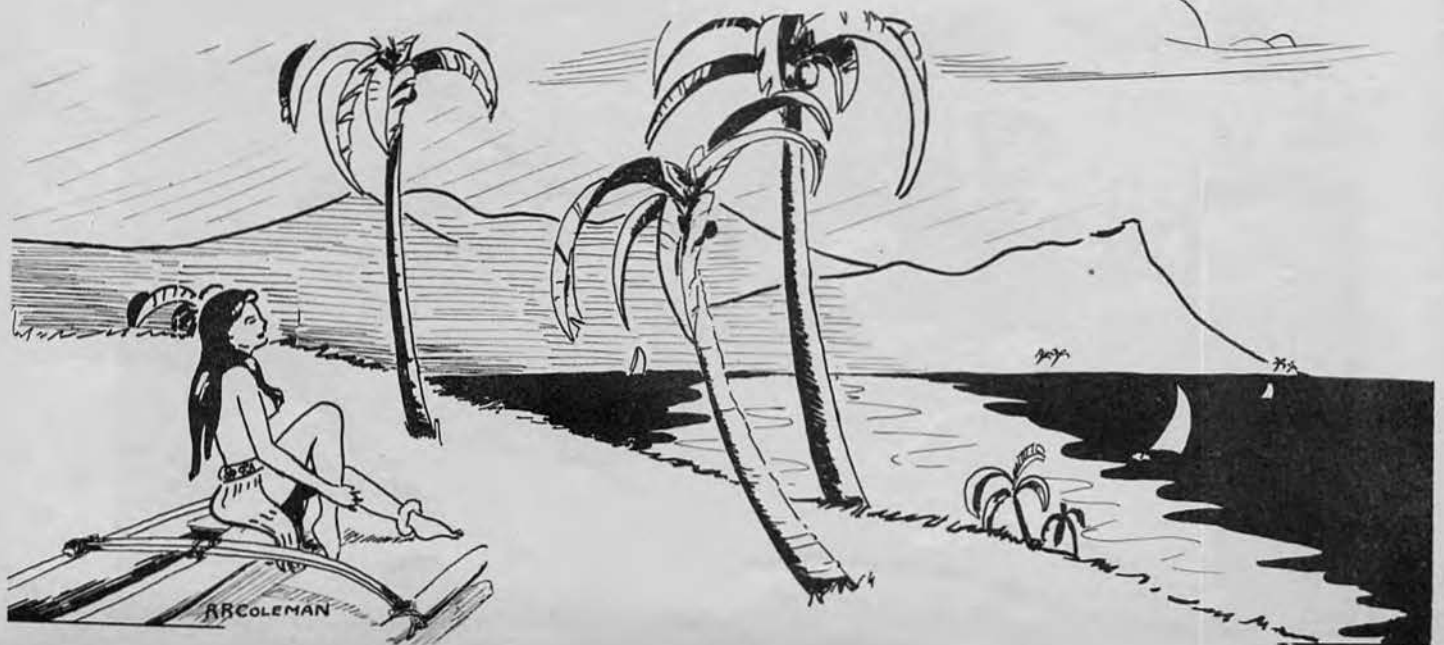

Refreshed by a four month's vacation in California's famous (?) climate, the boys once more gathered together their belongings and shoved off for Island X—leaving many broken hearts behind them in Hollywood and Los Angeles, not to mention Oxnard and Ventura.

CHAPLAIN

FIRST COMMUNION SERVICE ON THE ISLAND

CHAPLAIN E. W. ANDERSON,
LIEUT. (ChC)

The activities of the Chaplain's Department can be divided into four groups, namely: Religious, Welfare, Educational and Public Relations.

As Americans, and a democratic nation, we believe in freedom of worship according to our faiths. In close conjunction with their religious needs, the door to the Chaplain's office is always open to men for consultation.

Tours, parties, games, etc., are a few of the diversions offered for the welfare and morale of the battalion.

An excellent library is in operation, offering a wide variety of reading material. Much "off-duty" time is spent by the men in the library, reading and writing letters. Several men have availed themselves of courses offered by the USAFI, which in this battalion is under the direction of Chief Paul H. Shire.

The SEABEEDORE, the battalion newspaper, is the most recent member of the organization, and has already ingratiated itself with everyone. The SEABEEDORE is a semi-monthly publication carrying news articles and pictures of the activities of the battalion. In addition to editing and printing of the SEABEEDORE, the Battalion Print Shop, operated by Chief A. S. Fulling and his three assistants, all former newspapermen and pressmen, is humming with activity, printing various types of materials for the Battalion and Regiment.

SUPPLY

SUPPLY OFFICE

SUPPLY WAREHOUSE

The primary purpose of the Supply Department is that of service to all other departments of the battalion. Here, the requisitions for many items required are received and processed and the various types of procurement initiated and followed to the ultimate delivery of the materials needed. Under the guidance of the Supply Officer, Lieut. D. M. Stevens, and Chief W. H. Walton, the entire departmental staff has cooperated to keep the batallion supplied with its manifold needs.

Records must be kept, inventory control levels set, orders written up, sources of supply determined and above all else, the job must be done, since the battalion cannot operate without proper supplies.

Three of the department's men have received commissions since we left Camp Peary. Several members are included on the basketball roster. All are indefatigable letter writers and the "folks at home" are kept well advised of current events. All in all, the results of the Supply group prove that the combination of hard work and adequate relaxation have contributed in full measure towards the well-being of the battalion as a whole.

PAY LINE

The Disbursing Officer looks to the Personnel Officer for all orders that affect the pay of personnel, such as the order to take up pay account upon a man's receipt into the battalion, delivery of the account on transfer, and close of account on death, desertion or discharge. In addition, all changes in rate of pay, checkages of pay for a fine as result of court action and increases of pay for duty as Mail Clerk, Messman or credit for longevity or leave rations.

Inquiries about Family Allowance are prepared by the Personnel Office to aid men in getting the proper benefits for their dependents. All periodical reports required by the Bureau of Naval Personnel are compiled and distributed so that the Bureau will have a complete picture of the status of all personnel attached to the battalion.

LT. (jg) T. D. CALVIN, PERSONNEL OFFICER

The Personnel Office yeomen in this picture (all busily engaged at their respective tasks) are left to right, R. L. Tate, Y2c; D. P. Jones, Y3c; R. J. Hupp, Y3c; L. J. Dombrowski, Y3c; and Lieut. Calvin (front) G. J. Moore, Y1c. (Below) Dombrowski explains some of the mysteries of family allowance to H. R. Hull, Ck2c.

PERSONNEL

PERSONNEL OFFICE

The Personnel Office is charged with the responsibility of keeping records, and accounts, making reports, and rendering advice on the personal affairs of the enlisted men of the battalion. It acts as representative of the Officer-in-Charge in regard to matters of receipt, transfer and alteration in pay of enlisted personnel.

A service record for each man is maintained by this department in which all data pertinent to a man's tour of duty in the Navy is recorded. This record contains all information relative to each man's transfers, advancements and reductions in rating, disciplinary action, marks in proficiency and conduct, beneficiaries, personal identification, schools attended, leave taken and absence from duty.

Public Works is one of the vital departments of the battalion. It gives its fullest cooperation to all departments, but this is often hampered by some requesting their work be taken care of first. It is then necessary to work on a priority basis and the health of the men has first call.

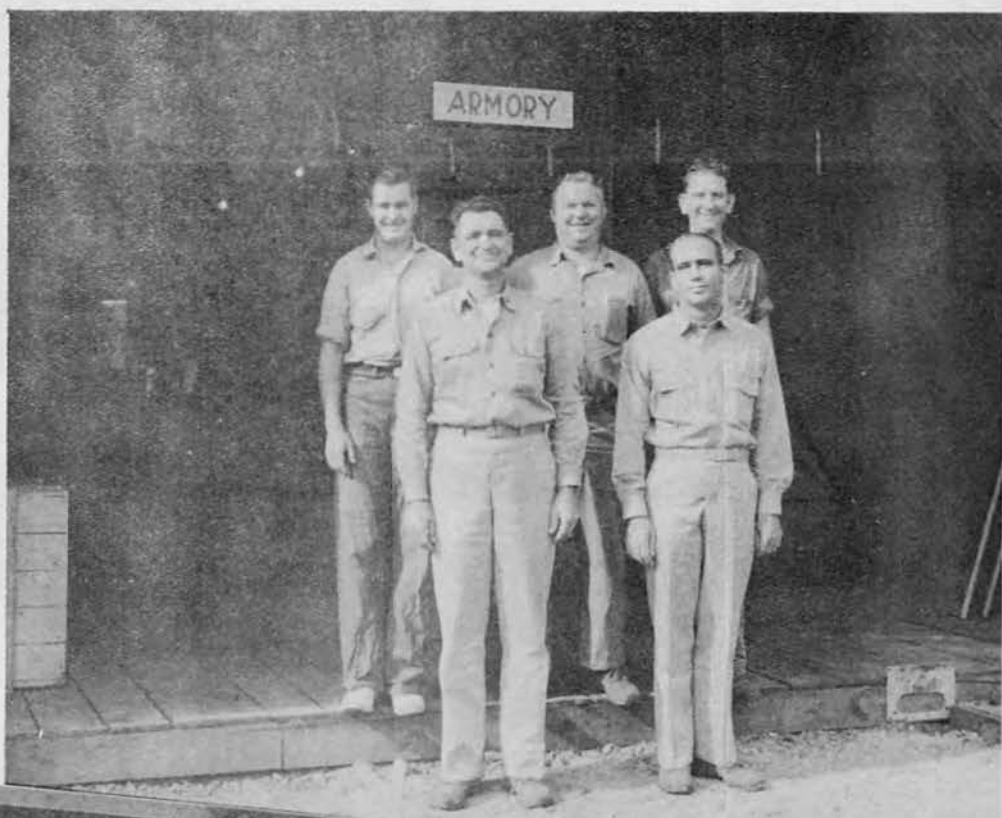

When the 26th was at the "Ridge," Public Works had many and various duties to perform. The Commissary department was the champion securer of work orders (procurer might be more applicable term) in their desire to get today's work done yesterday.

Toward the end of the stay at the "Ridge" Hobby Lobby, affectionately known as "Working for Tojo" reached the epidemic stage. However, a sulfa drug, in the form of an order, cured it almost overnight. Since arrival at the "Hill" Public Works has been greeted with a bombardment of orders. It is impossible to list, without writing a book, the many items they have been called upon to build or repair. Some may be whims, but they have been taken care of as conditions permitted.

MEDICAL &

DENTAL

LIEUT. J. A. PARKER, DENTAL OFFICER

LIEUT. (jg) R. J. FAHEY, MEDICAL OFFICER

Since the commissioning of the 26th Special USNCB, the Medical department has been operating efficiently in spite of the fact that there have been many transfers and changes made in the personnel.

Below is listed some of the actual figures taken from the records, showing just how busy the "men in white" have been. These figures cover the period of time from 1 March 1944 to 1 March 1945.

Total days lost from work due to illness ..	1538
Total admissions to sick bay	572
Total injuries (disabling)	92
Total days lost from work due to injuries .	258
Total patients transferred to U. S. N. H. . .	208
Total men visiting sick bay during sick call	10950
Total operations performed	29

The Medical department now consists of Dr. Robert J. Fahey Lt. (jg) (MC) USNR, senior medical officer, Chief Bevis, and eight other hospital corpsmen. The corpsmen are continually receiving training in their work and all of them have advanced at least one rate since being attached to this activity. They are always willing to serve you and their primary interest is to keep every man physically fit and able to do his duties.

The dental department has been striving to bring the dental health of the battalion up to a high standard. To this end, during the past year, 974 teeth have been filled, 43 men have had plates made, repaired or rebuilt, 364 teeth have been extracted, and 144 sets of teeth have been cleaned.

Since 1 January, 1945, 719 of the fillings were placed, 260 teeth extracted and 40 of the men have had new plates made or their old ones restored to function.

During the past six months, 341 men of the battalion have received treatment, 245 of this number having had all needed treatment completed. At the present time the department is attempting to modernize its equipment in an effort to make operative procedures more comfortable for both

TRANSPORTATION

CHIEF CARP. M. A. DE LOTTO, TRANSPORTATION OFFICER

The primary function of this department is the transportation of our stevedores to and from the docks. In addition, trucks and personnel carriers are used to transport dock checkers, rigging gangs and shoring gangs, and also handle commissary supplies and building materials. Trucks, personnel carriers and jeeps are available to authorized personnel for recreation when not being used in connection with the work of the battalion.

The general shop consists of motor repair section, body repair shop, paint shop, grease rack, wash rack and stock room, where all work for the maintenance, repair and painting of vehicles is carried on, making the most efficient use of the vehicles as possible. This department is headed by Chf. Carp. DeLotto, assisted by F. L. Reed, CMM, and a crew of 33 men.

LETTERS STARTING BACK HOME

Headed by Lieut. (jg) T. O. Nobis, the Communications Department had its humble beginning in Camp Peary, where its sole functional activity was the Post Office, handled by H. "Pop" Roberts and Jim Lashbaugh, Navy Mail Clerks.

When the battalion moved to Port Hueneme, the Post Office continued all-important. In addition, men were trained in visual communications for possible future needs. Upon arrival from California, a new function—censorship—became necessary. Chief Ritchie later succeeded Chief Alvis as chief in charge of the six-man censor board.

With the move to the battalion's new location, the communication unit was charged with the responsibility of Regimental Communications. Constant repair to the P. A. system and installation of additional telephone service fell to Kennedy and Newkirk, who became exclusively telephone maintenance and repair men.

The Regimental Post Office, the operation and maintenance of the camp telephone system and prompt distribution of Guard Mail, all under Chief Ritchie's cognizance, comprise the scope of the Communications activity.

RECREATION

CHIEF CARP. R. H. MAUTONE, RECREATION OFFICER

It has been the aim of the Recreation Department, headed by Chf. Carp. R. H. Mautone, to supply each man in the battalion with the means to enjoy himself in his own way during his leisure hours. With this in mind, a large quantity of recreation and welfare gear—far in excess of standard requirements—was obtained before this battalion left the States. For men who like sports, equipment is on hand for baseball, football, basketball, volleyball, tennis, ping-pong, fishing and golf. For those less energetic, there was plentiful supply of good books and recorded music. Here on the island, although a heavy working schedule prevented any large scale recreation, (continued on next page)

Stevedores

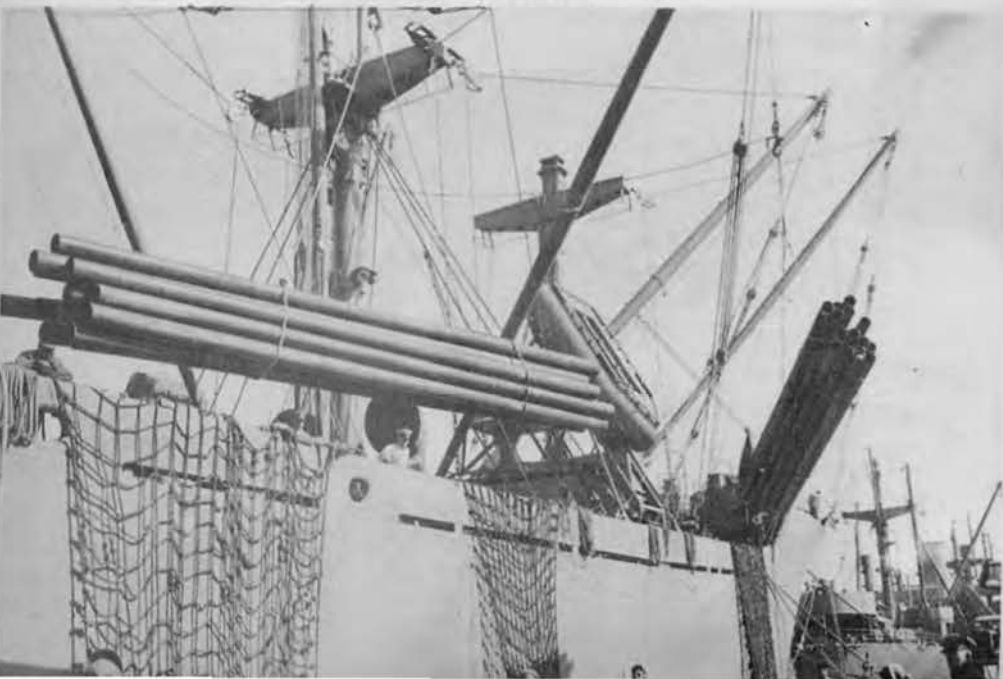

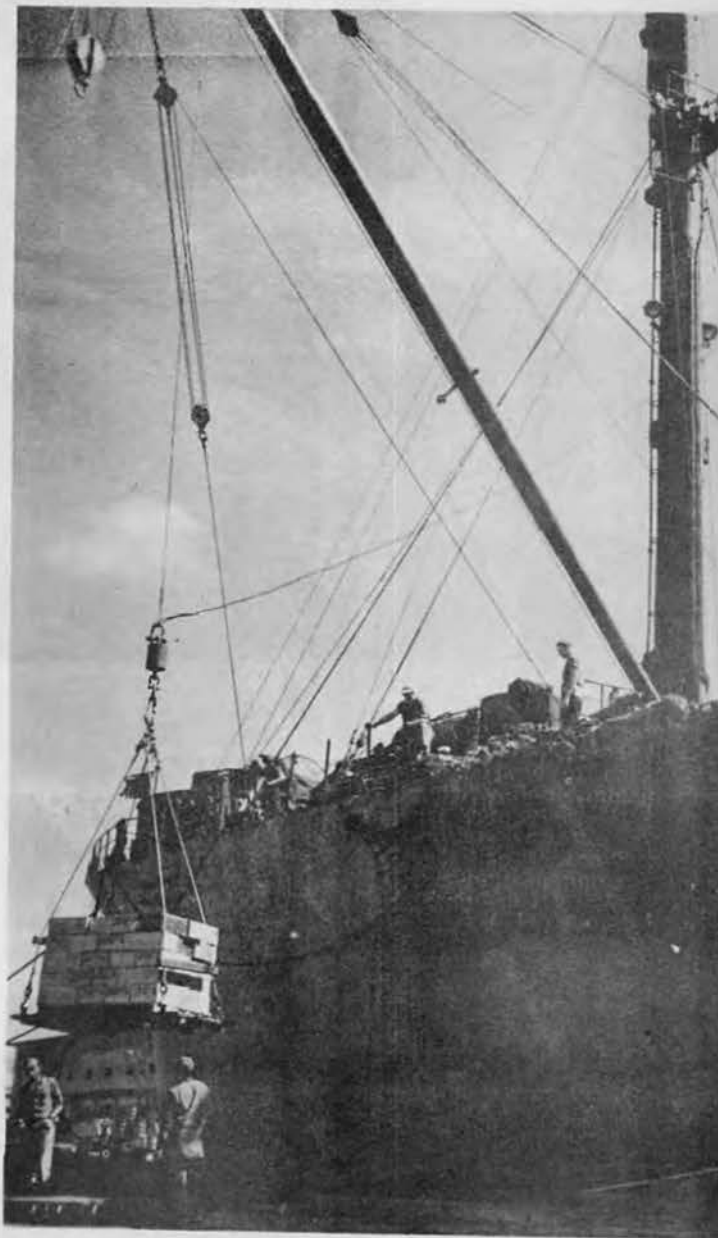

LT. (jg) G. D. GRAVES,
OPERATIONS OFFICER

THIS IS OUR JOB—STEVEDORING. THIS, AND ONLY THIS, IS OUR REASON FOR EXISTENCE AS A BATTALION.

THE 26th SPECIAL, STRAIGHT FROM CAMP PEARY'S LAND-LOCKED TRAINING SHIPS AND A FEW WEEK'S EXPERIENCE AT PORT HUENEME, STARTED TO WORK ON THEIR FIRST SHIP AT PEARL HARBOR IN AUGUST, 1944. THE MEN SOON HAD THE BOOMS TOPPED, FALLS RIGGED AND HATCHES OPENED AND THE WINCHES BEGAN TO SING WITH "PAY LOADS."

SINCE THAT TIME, THE 26th SPECIAL HAS ROLLED UP AN ENVIABLE RECORD—THE BATTALION HAS DONE A JOB ANY STEVEDORING UNIT COULD POINT TO WITH PRIDE. AND IT IS THE MEN ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES WHO HAVE DONE THE JOB — A GRIMY, SWEATY, BACK-BREAKING JOB — BUT ONE THAT HAD TO BE DONE WELL AND FAST—AND ONE THAT IN NO SMALL WAY HAS CONTRIBUTED TO THE VICTORIOUS SWEEP OF OUR ARMED FORCES ACROSS THE PACIFIC TO THE VERY SHORES OF THE ENEMY.

SHIP BEING LOADED

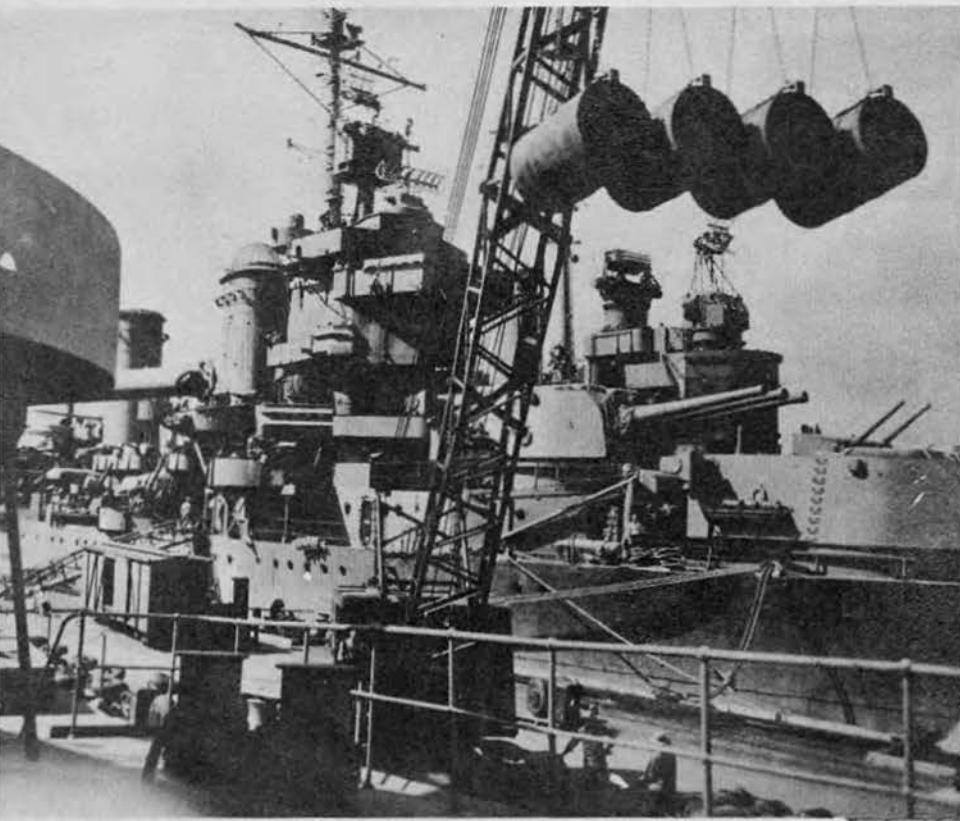

The Cargo Operations Office is a clearing house for all stevedoring activity. Its most important function being the dissemination of stevedoring operations information, and necessary data to all concerned.

This office represents the Commanding Officer in all dealings concerning the stevedoring operations and the issuing of working orders and details to battalion officers and personnel.

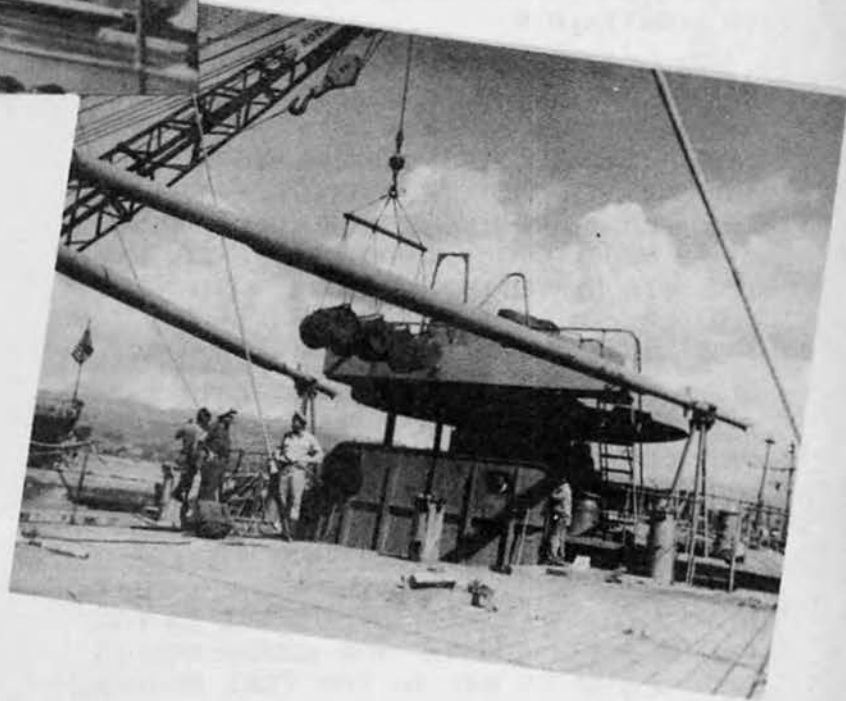

Here the records are kept. The matter of records is of great importance. Daily ship status reports are made covering type of operations, sections assigned, officers in charge, vessels and sections standing by, and type of cargo and cargo handled. From this available information, our tonnage records are computed.

Being constantly familiar with the complete operation, it is in a position to coordinate as much as possible the constant elements of manpower and cargo.

USO THEATRICAL DIVISION

On this, and the following pages, are a few of the reasons why USO shows are so popular with the Seabees.

Organized on Oahu in February, 1942, the Theatrical Division of the USO has been giving servicemen on this, and nearby islands, top-flight entertainment steadily since that time. Among those heading the group and whose hard work has made this program possible are: George R. Carter and Mrs. Edith Warren, directors; Mrs. Josephine Flanders, producer, and Eddie Camara, musical director. Material for each unit is written and staged by Mrs. Flanders and Camara. When ready, the show is booked all over the island, playing an average of 5 to 6 performances a week for all branches of the services.

Among the shows best remembered by this battalion were "Out of This World," "4-O," "G-Eyeful," the Bob Crosby unit, and "Three's A Family." The latter two were brought intact from the Mainland.

PHOTOGRAPHED FROM

CORAL GARDENS

On these pages will be found a few scenes of "THE ROCK" that served as your home during part of World War II. You will find glimpses here and there of marine views, street scenes, public buildings, monuments, beaches and churches that most of the battalion has seen at one time or other during a tour of the island. They are the landmarks that mould the features of this colorful, photogenic Oahu.

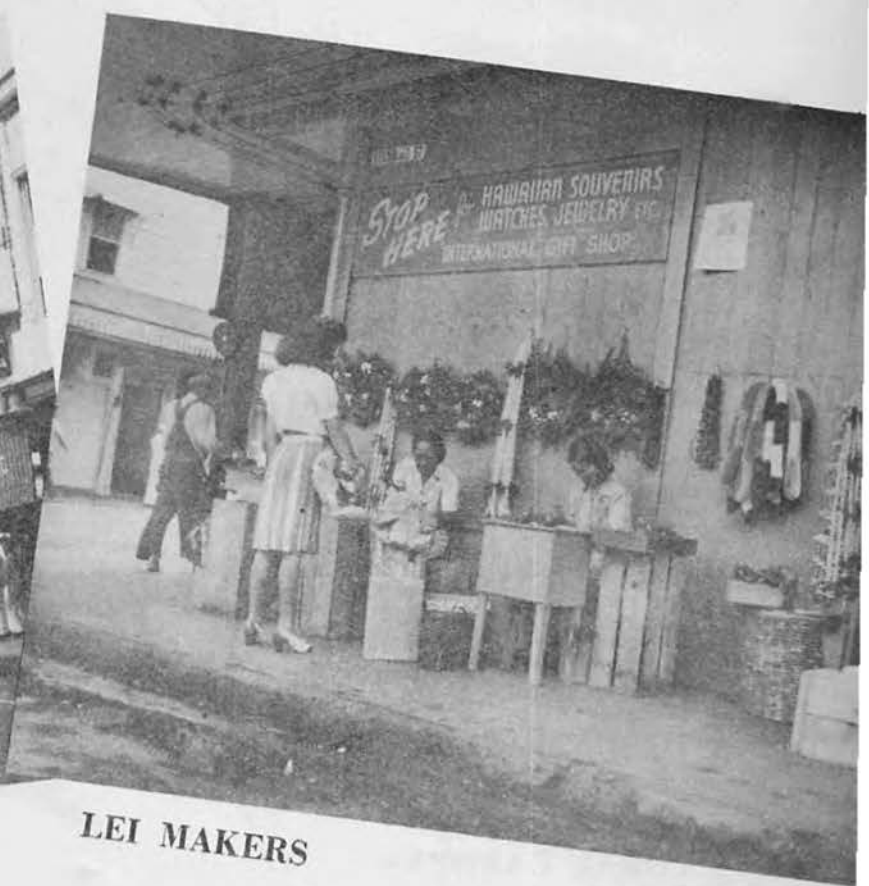

If, in the years to come, you recall a spot that made you forget, for a moment, your reason for being there, they will have served their purpose.

LIEUT. S. M. BIRCH

LT. COMDR. D. E. LEWIS

LIEUT. THOS. CAMPBELL

COMDR. CHAS. E. NASH

The officers whose photographs appear on this and the following pages have all served with this battalion, but are no longer connected with the command. Two of them received commissions since the organization of the battalion. Although duty has called them elsewhere, we remember them as our own, and no record of the 26th Special would be complete without their representation. To them, wherever they are, we send our greetings.

—Through broiling day and chilling night
We toil and sweat and work and fight
For Yank and Gob;

From Northern Lights to desert sun
In all engagements called upon
To do the job.

The war is borne, the days are long;
But brother, do not get us wrong!
We are the crew

With pride enough, by foreign seas—
And plenty tough—though just Seabees
Who say, "Can Do!"

—William Rose Benet
in "CAN DO!"
