

United States Navy Biography

QM3 Anthony G. Bentley
United States Navy
USS FARRAGUT (DDG 99)

QM3 Bentley is from the small town of Grants, New Mexico. He spent most of his formative years in San Antonio, Texas where he met his husband and became a military spouse for five years. Once his spouse exited the service, QM3 gladly enlisted to serve his country.

After graduating from NAVSTA Great Lakes Boot Camp with a promotion from QMSA to QMSN for serving as the divisional Yeoman, Bentley continued on to Quartermaster “A” School where he graduated as distinguished graduate and top of his class, and received another promotion to Petty Officer Third Class. His first tour was on the USS FARRAGUT (DDG 99), quickly becoming a force to be reckoned with on the deckplates as the MWR Vice President, Blue Jacket of the Quarter Nominee, as well as member of the Command Resiliency Team, Junior Enlisted Association, and Diversity Committee onboard. Within his division, he is currently the Training Petty Officer, Deck Log Petty Officer, Flag Bag Petty Officer, and the Digital Nautical Chart Petty Officer.

QM3 Bentley received a Navy And Marine Corps Achievement Medal Award for his involvement and commitment to service, ensuring that he goes out of his way to boost morale onboard as well as contribute to the safe navigation as a valuable member of the navigation team.