

THE AIR WAR IN KOREA IS OVER

LAST STRIKE—On the morning of 27 July, Panthers and Banshees from the Boxer wing back to the carrier after completing their last combat mission against the Communists

NO CELEBRATION—Back aboard the Boxer, sober-faced deck crew-men cluster around to hear that the armistice has been signed

NEWS REPORTER—Capt. Marshall B. Gurney of the Boxer tells his men the three-year war with Communist invaders has been ended

LAST BOMB—These three pilots, Loomer, McGinnis, Reggan congratulate Finlay, in cockpit, for dropping last bomb on the Reds

NO MORE WAR—The first night after the armistice sees a Panther jet secured on the Boxer's now all-quiet deck, but still ready
