

Virtual Education Program Request Form

The Hampton Roads Naval Museum offers five of our regular education programs in a virtual format. These programs are:

- Explorers and Navigation
- The Battle of Hampton Roads
- Over There: U.S. Navy Propaganda Posters of World War I
- Axis and Allied Propaganda in World War II
- African Americans in the Navy

Programs will be available as pre-recorded videos that cover the same information our educators usually do in person, along with activities for the students that can be either led by the teacher or used as homework assignments.

To request a program, please fill out the following information:

Teacher's Name: _____

School name: _____

School address: _____

Teacher's phone number: _____

Teacher's email address: _____

Grade level(s): _____

Approximately how many students will be participating in the program? _____

Which virtual program(s) would you like to book?

- Explorers and Navigation
- The Battle of Hampton Roads
- Over There: U.S. Navy Propaganda Posters of World War I
- Axis and Allied Propaganda in World War II
- African Americans in the Navy

When would you like to book the program? Please give a few different dates or range of dates.

To book a program, please return this sheet to Zac Cunningham, School Programs Educator, at zachary.a.cunningham2.civ@us.navy.mil or call (757) 322-2985.