

★ A Naval History and Heritage Command Publication ★

Naval Documents of the American Revolution

Volume 12

American Theater, April 1, 1778 — May 31, 1778
European Theater, April 1, 1778 — May 31, 1778

Michael J. Crawford, editor

Dennis M. Conrad, associate editor

E. Gordon Bowen-Hassell and Mark L. Hayes, assistant editors

ISBN 978-0-945274-72-8

Free PDF download:

www.history.navy.mil/research/publications/recent-publications.html

Hardcover available for purchase from the Government Printing Office:

<http://bookstore.gpo.gov/agency/902>

Naval Documents of the American Revolution

12
1778

Volume 12 Highlights

- France enters the war.
- British strike in the Delaware River.
- Georgia State Navy captures two sloops.
- Continental Army raids on British plantations in West Florida.
- Continental Navy frigate Providence makes daring escape.
- John Paul Jones and Ranger's forays in English waters.
- Mutinous plot foiled on board Continental Navy frigate Boston.
- Continental Navy cutter Revenge pursues British shipping in the Atlantic.
- French Toulon fleet sails for the U.S. coast.

The Naval History and Heritage Command announces the publication of Volume 12 of the award-winning series Naval Documents of the American Revolution, acclaimed by historians as “indispensable” and “the preeminent collection” for studying the naval aspects of the War of Independence.

Containing the authentic words of actors in the drama of the Revolution, through diaries, letters, petitions, and ships’ logs, as well as muster rolls, orders, official reports, and newspaper accounts, the volumes bring together the basic documentation requisite for a thorough understanding of the maritime heritage of the United States and the importance of the war at sea in the nation’s fight for independence.

The collection includes American, British, French, and Spanish points of view and gives voice to common seamen, civilians, women, and slaves as well as policy makers, political leaders, and naval and military officers.

About the Naval History and Heritage Command

Headquartered on the historic Washington Navy Yard in Washington, D.C., the Naval History and Heritage Command collects, preserves, and makes available the art, artifacts, and documents that best capture our nation’s naval history. The Naval History and Heritage Command advances the knowledge of naval history and heritage through professional research, analysis, and interpretation products and services. We invite you to visit one of our ten museums across the country, or our Navy Department Library on the Washington Navy Yard to learn more.

805 Kidder Breese Street SE
Washington Navy Yard
Washington, DC 20374

Visit the Naval History and Heritage Command online at www.history.navy.mil

www.history.navy.mil