III. NARRATIVE SUMMARY

GERMANTOWN started the New Year, after a Pre Overseas Movement leave and upkeep period, with it's second deployment in two years. The ship deployed for WESTPAC 12 January with Golf Battery 3/1 and ACU-5 Det BRAVO embarked as her marine/LCAC detachments, the first ship ever to deploy with four LCACs embarked.

12 January through 2 February were spent in transit to the Western Pacific operating areas. GERMANTOWN arrived in Okinawa for a one day stop for mail, fuel and stores on her way to the Phillipines to participate in Valiant Usher 89-3. Valiant Usher 89-3 was the first time during the ship's deployment that demonstrated the vast capabilities and professionalism of the GERMANTOWN/LCAC team. The remainder of February was spent at Ship's Repair Facility, Subic Bay, RP for upkeep and a much deserved rest and recreational time for the crew after 28 days at sea. During the Subic Bay upkeep period GERMANTOWN's Food Service Division participated in its second NEY inspection. Much work went into preparations which paid off. The GERMANTOWN was the only amphibious ship to make it to the NEY semi-finals. Next on the agenda for GERMANTOWN was Exercise Team Spirit 89. After her time in Subic Bay, the ship unloaded additional Marines in Okinawa and proceeded to Pohang, South Korea. Once on station, GERMANTOWN led the way during Team Spirit, utilizing her compliment of Marines and LCAC's to land the landing force. While off the coast of South Korea, GERMANTOWN's doctor was called to help in treating casualties from a helicopter crash that killed many servicemen while they were practicing the defense of democracy. LT Olch was awarded the Navy Achievement Medal for his actions in saving lives. After Team Spirit, GERMANTOWN headed south to Okinawa and then to Hong Kong for a port visit. The GERMANTOWN was underway once more, this time to Subic Bay, RP for another availability at SRF. The ship's crew again enjoyed the 10 days of recreation in the Subic Bay area. Continuing, the ship set sail once again, this time heading through the San Bernadino Strait on the way to Sydney, Australia. King Neptune initiated over two thirds of the crew into the solemn order of the deep, 27 April. Once in Sydney, the crew took advantage of the great hospitality and visited such sites as the Opera House, zoo and excursion of the Greem Mountain Park for a tour of the outback. While the ship was in Sydney, over 2000 guests were aboard for tours of the ship's various spaces, including a brief of the LCAC's by ACU-5. GERMANTOWN set sail on 15 May for Exercise Coral Sea Valiant Usher with our Australian allies. After Exercise Coral Sea, the ship transited parts of the Great Barrier Reef for a visit to Townsville, Australia. Again the crowds of people arrived for tours and general visitation. While in Townsville, the crew relaxed on the beach and toured the reefs off the coast. The ship departed Townsville 30 May on the way to Guam but due to conflicts in Central America, the Amphibious Ready Group was recalled to San Diego early. Courses were plotted to Pearl Harbor and from Pearl to San Diego. The ship arrived in Hawaii 11 June for a 1 day replenishment of fuel, stores and food. GERMANTOWN returned to San Diego the morning of 19 June. A post overseas movement leave period was scheduled from 19 June through 1 July and it was back to work 2 July. GERMANTOWN remained in San Diego for 6 weeks preparing for ISE, training period, MCCRES and an upcoming INSURV. During the month of August, the ship was underway for two and one half weeks for these evolutions. The Inspection and Survey Board Pacific conducted a material inspection of GERMANTOWN the week of 11 through 15 September. This was a significant event on the West Coast, because it was the first for a LSD 41 class ship. GERMANTOWN's material condition was in excellent shape and her crew left a hard act to follow for future LSDs on the West Coast.

The remainder of 1989 was spent participating in Law Enforcement Operations, support for two CNO projects and preparation for DPMA.

After INSURV, GERMANTOWN embarked a U. S. Coast Guard contingent for LEO Operations off Baja California, Mexico. Lots of quality training was accomplished during this period. GERMANTOWN returned to port on 12 October for 2 weeks of upkeep. The week of 31 October to 3 November was underway for ISE in the SOCAL area followed by a week in port. On November 13, GERMANTOWN was underway for the ammunition offload in preparation for the upcoming DPMA and for SOCAL operations in support of two CNO projects. A burial at sea was conducted for five individuals enroute from Seal Beach, California to San Diego. From 4 December to 31 December, the GERMANTOWN was in dry dock at Southwest Marine for her DPMA which is to last until April 1990.
