NARRATIVE

I. Final Contract Trials (FCT)

A. Objective: To present the Combat System/Weapon System to the INSURV Board to identify deficiencies in material readiness, design, and training.

B. Contents: All aspects of the Combat/Weapons Systems were presented to INSURV via the maintenance program and detection, track and engagement scenerios.

C. Lessons Learned

1. Mode of operation of close-in-weapon system should be modified to better counter-act the threat. Key design deficiencies in power distribution were identified and will be corrected via engineering changes.

D. Evaluation

1. A successful assessment of the material condition, readiness and training of LEYTE GULF's combat/weapon system.

II. SM2 BLK III - See Enclosure (4), TAB (A)

III. OPPE - See Enclosure (4), TAB (B)

IV. SMI - See Enclosure (4), TAB (C)

V. New AAW Tactic, "Silent Spear" - See Enclosure (4), TAB (D)

VI. Awards Received - In addition to battle excellence awards in every warfare category, LEYTE GULF won the Atlantic Fleet Ship Safety Award, the Navy's Captain Edward F. Ney Memorial Award for excellence in food service, and the Merit Award from the Chief of Information for top Familygram in the Navy.
