BASIC HISTORY

LOS ANGELES spent the first four months of 1986 conducting local operations which included an Operational Reactor Safeguard Examination in March. LOS ANGELES then entered USS COMPETENT AFDM-6 in May 86 for a 6 week upkeep. After a short sea trials in July LOS ANGELES departed on 21 July 86 for Carr Inlet, WA to conduct sound trials. LOS ANGELES conducted local operations before a port visit in Long Beach, CA., sound trials at the Southern California Acoustic Range and a short visit to San Diego. LOS ANGELES arrived back at Pearl Harbor on 31 August 1986 and remained inport during September to prepare for a Western Pacific Deployment. LOS ANGELES then was certified to shoot MK48 torpedoes and Tomahawk missiles before deploying on 24 October 1986. The remainder of the year was spent underway with short stops in Chinhae, South Korea and Yokosuka, Japan.
