MEMORANDUM FOR THE VICE CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS:

Subject: Naval Aeronautical Organization, definition of.

1. The term "Naval Aeronautical Organization" has become extremely vague and appears in some cases misused. An instance has recently been noted where reference was made to "surface vessels assigned to the Aeronautical Organization".

2. In the interest of clarifying the term "Naval Aeronautical Organization", it is directed that you prepare a definition for my consideration.

AVIATION HISTORY UNIT

Via: Vice Chief of Naval Operations.

Subject: "Naval Aeronautic Organization" - Definition of.

Ref: (a) Cominch conf memo to VCNO ser ORO46 dtd 11 July 1945.

1. Reference (a) requested clarification and definition of the term "Naval Aeronautic Organization."

2. The "Naval Aeronautic Organization" is not a separate organization or entity but is a collective phrase or term which comprises those activities whose primary responsibility is the furnishing of aeronautic requirements of the Navy, which includes the following:

- (a) All Navy aircraft wings, groups, squadrons and units, both ship based and land based.
- (b) Aircraft carriers, seaplane tenders, and such other vessels whose primary mission is the support of Naval Aviation.
- (c) Shore activities, domestic and foreign, whose primary mission is the support of aircraft units plus those activities engaged in the test, manufacture, procurement, maintenance, distribution and development of aeronautical material under the cognizance of CNO (DCNO Air) and the Bureau of Aeronautics.
- (d) Miscellaneous offices and units whose primary mission is in the planning, logistic support, and training of personnel for naval aviation.

3. It is recognized that the term "Naval Aeronautic Organization" has been used with varied and somewhat ambiguous meanings. In view of the fact that Naval Aviation in its entirety is an integral part of the Navy rather than a separate organization, it is recommended that the use of the term "Naval Aeronautic Organization" be discontinued and that the activities to which reference is made above in paragraph 2 be characterized as "Naval Aviation."

4. If the above recommendation is approved, appropriate measures will be taken to change the titles of existing publications and to further implement the change.

Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (A1)
