

ANA PHOTO CONTEST

Above, JOC(SW) Robert Benson won the bimonthly photo competition with this dramatic shot, which he captioned: "Darkness comes to life through the eerie glow of a night-vision device as a Marine helicopter from Nassau (LHA 4) heads toward a training target over South Carolina." Below, honorable mention went to Lt. Clint Trocchio, who caught this Coast Guard HC-130H Hercules "lost" in the jungle, its tail protruding near a lagoon. Actually, the aircraft is sitting on the threshold end of the runway on Palmyra Atoll in the central Pacific Ocean.

The Association of Naval Aviation's (ANA) photo contest is open to everyone except the staffs of ANA, Wings of Gold magazine and Naval Aviation News. The subject matter MUST pertain to Naval Aviation. Submissions can be in black and white or color, slides or prints, or electronic images. Please include the photographer's name and address, and PHOTO CAPTION.

For details call 703-960-2490. Mail photos to ANA, 2550 Huntington Ave., Suite 201, Alexandria, VA 22303-1499; email zip@anahq.org.

Cash Awards: Bimonthly—$100. Annual—First, $350; Second, $250; Third, $150.
